Finances and credit for Millikin/ Guest Students

Guest Students pay tuition to and receive credit through Millikin University. You are responsible to transfer the credits back to your college or university.

Chicago Center's application is accepted as the guest student application by Millikin University. Chicago Center will send a copy of your Chicago Center Application to Millikin Registrar Walt Wessel. Millikin will send you a tuition invoice (typically by email) and you'll pay tuition to Millikin University. You will pay Chicago Center's Program fee to Chicago Center when you arrive in Chicago. Program fees are listed on Chicago Center's website under the term for which you are applying.

For the following terms of study, these are the Millikin credits you will receive as a Guest Student of Millikin University:

Fall or Spring Semester:

SOC 350, 3 credit hours (for the Chicago Seminar)
SOC 355, 6 credit hours (for your internship)
SOC 340 (for the Directed Study) 3 credit hours
14 credit hours total

Summer Session:

SOC 350, 3 credit hours (for the Chicago Seminar)
SOC 355, 6 credit hours (for your internship)
9 credit hours total

May Term:

SOC 355 = 4 credit hours

January Term:

SOC 355 = 4 credit hours

The Registrar, Walt Wessel, is very helpful and can be reached at wwessel@millikin.edu or 1.800.373.7733 extension 9.

Your advisor, and/or Registrar at your college or university will help you determine what courses the Millikin credits will transfer back to your campus as.

If your advisor or registrar from your home campus has questions or needs more information regarding the content of seminar courses or internships please contact:
